INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

I was informed by wife, before our marriage that she was part Eastern Cherokee Indian and my wife's mother, Lucretia Gladden also told me that she was part Eastern Cherokee. She resembled the Cherokees very much. The mother of my wife talked the Eastern Cherokee language fluently.
and she could sing in the Indian language. They are generally known by their neighbors as part Eastern Cherokee Indians. I have no Eastern Cherokee blood in me.

Sir:-

Replying to your letter relative to the Eastern Cherokee enrollment, you are advised that your application has not been reached for final consideration, and we cannot state at this time whether you are entitled to share in this fund, or the amount each successful claimant will receive.

As there are nearly 44,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Stephen A. Smith, ---- Being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am 62 years old.

I live in Rogers County, or Coo-we-scoo-ee District. I have lived here since 1893. I lived in Alabama before coming here. I made an application to the Dawes Commission for my wife, and she is dead. I have a son John. The children claim through their mother. I don't claim any Cherokee blood. My wife has been dead about 5 years. She was rejected by the Dawes Commission. She came from Alabama with me in '93. She did not get the bread and strip money. She was living in 1851. I don't think she was enrolled at that time. I do not know why she was not enrolled. I think about the time of her birth her father died, and then after she was born his wife married a white man, and I think they paid no attention to the enrollment. My wife got her blood from both sides. ^{mother's} ~~her~~ ^{she was born} ~~her~~ name at the time ~~she was born~~ ^{she was born} was Hensfield or Hensel, some called her Miss Beth Hensfield. Her name was Elizabeth Ann before her marriage. My wife's mother's mother was Soles. Her given name was Triscilla Soles. My wife's father was John Hensel, sometime known as Hensfield. I do not remember her father's parents' names. I don't know of any one connected with my wife or myself. My wife was an Indian Cherokee. I think her people were not parties to the treaty of 1835 as they moved from North Carolina to Alabama about 1825, before the treaty of 1835. My wife's people never associated with any other tribe of Indians to my knowledge. My wife's mother's name was Soles and she was from the country. My wife's parents taught Cherokee and so I interpret the names of my wife and others.

Barthley Thompson being first duly sworn in behalf of William Thompson, deposes and says:

I am 62 years of age. I was born and raised in this state. I am the uncle of applicant. He is 49 years of age. He was enrolled by the Dawes Commission and got land. ~~xxxx~~ He got the head and strip payment. He gets his Indian blood through both parents. His father was named Jordon Thompson. He died about three years after the war. I don't know whether Jordon got any money in 1881 or not. I got my name Thompson from the man who owned me. Jordon Thompson was not a slave. He was an Indian. He may have had the negro blood but I don't know of it. He was just like the other full bloods. He couldn't talk English at all. He was married to the mother of applicant and they lived together. Jim Allen Thompson owned the mother of this applicant. Her father was Ben Grott - an Indian - and he came from the old country. Thompson also owned the applicant because he owned his mother and this applicant was born before the war was over. Thompson did not own the father of applicant but he, the father, lived there at Thompson's with the mother of applicant. I don't know the name of Jordon's mother, but his grandmother was a full blood Indian and her name was Mary Knife-fisher. William Thompson, the applicant, was born during slavery and was owned by Allen Thompson. I don't know the name of Jordon Thompson's father. He lived in Salina, Kansas. Gul-e-kay was a brother of Jordon Thompson.

Honorable Commissioner of Indian Affairs,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:-

In the matter of the enrollment of the Eastern Cherokees for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in their favor, I have received several applications in which the claimants state that they are descended from one "Benjamin Lasseter who was on the rolls for pay of some kind as being a member of the Totaway Tribe of Indians".

I would greatly appreciate it if your office would furnish me with some information as to the Totaway Cherokee Tribe, particularly as to whether it was a branch of the Cherokee Nation, and further whether it would be included as a portion of the Eastern Cherokees.

Also, I should be glad to know whether your office has a record of a payment made to the Totaway Cherokee Tribe as such, and if so in what year.

An early reply will be greatly appreciated.

Very respectfully,

SM:NLG.

Appin. No. 41808

Union Miller, Esq.,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:-

In answer to your favor of June 2, I would say that my father, Henry Burns was born in Raleigh, Wake Co. N. C. He lived in Guilford County until some time about the year 1850 when he moved to Surry Co. In 1853 he came to Yadkin County and lived here until his death. His father was an Eastern Cherokee Indian and his mother a white woman. The name of his father has been forgotten and cannot be obtained. My people have always passed as Cherokee Indians. I am unable to say why they were not enrolled.

Yours Very truly,

Mollie Williams

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of the 3rd inst, at hand relative to my application for participation in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokee, and further inquiry if claim is to be made through any other line of descent than through Donahoo and Bettie Pledge Poindexter. In reply will say that I do not claim any blood kin to the Eastern Cherokees through any other line of descent than through my Great-Grandfather, William P. Poindexter, commonly called, Billie Wag, son of Thomas and Bettie Pledge Poindexter, (or Elizabeth) daughter of Indian chief Donahoo of the Eastern Cherokee tribe.

William P. Poindexter was born December 7th, 1767, died March 3rd, 1844. He was living in 1845, about midway between the mouth of the Aikat River and Donahoo on the Wadkin River, Wayne County, North Carolina.

Mr. Guion Miller,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to your letter of June 2, 1908 to Caledonia Moore we desire to state that Caledonia Moore does not know why her parents, or rather her father was not enrolled. The applicant says she was born after the War of the 60' and has had no opportunity to enroll.

Applicant does not know herself whether her father Oscar Fain was enrolled or not neither does she know whether he was a party to any treaty, but we will try to find out in regard to this for her in a short time.

Oscar Fain lived in Floyd County, Georgia and died when applicant was very small, but she does not know where he was born.

She is a negro but is evidently mixed with Cherokee Indian blood. She passes as a negro.

Respectfully,

Wm. J. Miller
